HE URGES PASSAGE OF THE MILITIA PAYMEASURE

Feature of Annual Report of Secretary of War Stimson.

Washington, Dec. 9.—Unsparring condemnation of those who would, from "misplaced sentimentality or lazy self-interest," cast the Filipinos upon the world in the state of helplessness and before they had acquired the full benefits of American civilization, is a strong feature in the annual report of Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson.

The immediate completion of the posts at Panama and Hawaii he strongly urged as by far the most important items of military expenditure for the immediate future.

A strong plea is made for the passage of the militia pay bill, now pending, because the 100,000 men now in the National Guard, eager and ambitious to be of service in case of war, are practically unavailable under present conditions. These men, the secretary says, should not only be trained for war in time of peace, and paid by the national government, but it must be possible to transfer them immediately into the general military force and not militia in time of war.

George W. Perkins is arranging things. George W. Kirchway, John A. Kingbury, W. Bourke Cockran and Lucien Lombeir, Nassau county chairman, are also here.

Miss Mary Drele, who was a delegate to the national Progressive convention, and Miss Alice Carpenter are in the city conferring with Miss Jane Addams on the part the women are to play in the proceedings. Jane Addams is to preside over one of the sessions.

London, Dec. 9.—The Mormon missionaries have of late been very active in Ipswich and vicinity. This has aroused considerable feeling against them and ended in disorder when one of their meetings was broken up by a mob. The missionaries were forced to ask police protection from bodily injury.

War Wireless on Horseback;
Turks Flee, Bag and Baggage

Photos by American Press Association.

WIRELESS played an important part in the Balkan war. The Bulgarians transported their apparatus in an ingenious manner, fitting them on large saddles, which were placed on the backs of the horses. An arrangement of this kind is shown in the lower picture. In the upper view may be seen frightened Turks in a wild scramble on the quays of Stamboul waiting to be taken by ferry, bag and baggage, back to Asia Minor, whence they originally came.

Was Once a Hod Carrier.

United States Senator Ashurst has had a varied life, according to the new congressional directory. He has played many parts. Once he was a hodcarrier, then he was a lumberjack, coppersmith, clerk and reporter. Now he is a lawyer, rich and in national politics.

Some One Turned On the Gas.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 9.—All of the officers of the Dorcas chapter of the Eastern Star were made seriously ill at a meeting by natural gas, which had been turned into the room in which they were meeting. The police are seeking the identity of the person who turned on the gas. Miss Eva Sauer, organist, was the first and most seriously overcome. All will recover.

MEXICO SEEKING HELP OF DIVINE

People Turn to Prayer In Order to Save the Republic.

Mexico City, Dec. 9.—In obedience to a papal decree there began at midnight in every Catholic church throughout the republic a special mass for divine intervention in Mexico. In St. Peter's at Rome the pope himself at the same hour joined in the prayers for the restoration of peace.

Mgr. Bogaigni, the apostolic delegate, officiated in the Church of Guadalupe, where a service of unusual solemnity was held, although the services in the cathedral were almost equally impressive.

That the revolution in Mexico has resulted in conditions so bad that something more than human agencies is necessary to right them appears to be indicated, not only by the reports of the rebel operations but by the action of the secretary of the interior, Rafael Hernandez.

The secretary recently summoned Mgr. Bogaigni and appealed to him to use the power of the church to assist.

SULLEN TURK OUTLINES HIS PLANS APTLY

FAR EAST LAWYER ENIGMA

James Delay, Singapore Lawyer,
a Remarkable Character.

BIGAMIST WHO KILLED SELF

Relatives and Friends Surprised to Learn the Attorney Had Stolen the Love of Another Man's Wife and Had Sailed Subsequently Under an Assumed Name — Interesting Tale of Two Cities.

London, Dec. 9.—As the details of the life of James Arthur Delay, the Singapore lawyer who committed suicide after the mysterious disappearance of Mrs. Sidney Nowill from a hotel at New Quay, in Cornwall, come to light, the strangeness of his character becomes more and more evident. A mystery to every one, it is now clear that his silent manner and secret way concealed the strong passions of a careful schemer.

All Delay's relatives and most intimate friends were surprised after his death to find that this quiet, retired lawyer had been married 13 months ago in New York to Mrs. Mary Leslie Young by Alderman Smith of that city. They now find that with the exception of his wife, no one knew of the fact that he had secretly passed through the British divorce court under a false name.

The exact date when Delay met his wife is not known, but it was probably about 1909. She was then the apparently happy wife of a solicitor's clerk named Leonard Young. Delay deliberately planned to take her from her husband without anyone save the woman knowing his identity. For this purpose he assumed the name of Arthur Delay.

When the plans of Delay and Mrs. Young had been completed, Mrs. Young left a letter for her husband in which she said she was going away with the man she loved with all her heart and soul and praying Mr. Young to get a divorce. Her husband granted her request and the divorce papers were served on "Arthur Daley." Mrs. Young supplying the name and the information in the divorce petition that his address is unknown, but he formerly lived at the Great Central hotel.

All this time Delay existed only as Daley. He lived at various hotels and kept away from all his relatives and acquaintances. For the purpose of having the divorce citation served, he lived in a secluded place in Old Quebec street. He did not of course appear in the case, which resulted in Young getting a decree and $1,500 damages.

Shortly after the divorce was granted Daley ceased to exist and Delay reappeared. He took Mrs. Young to America, where they were married on Nov. 1, 1911, at the New York city hall. Delay characteristically giving Grand Vizier Kiamil Pasha Submits to an Interview.

TALKS OF PEACE NEGOTIATIONS

Says Sultan Will Not Permit Albania To Be Cut in Two In Order to Enable Servia to Reach the Sea and Will Not Give Up Adrianople—Also Tips Off the Porte's Attitude on Foreign Affairs.

Constantinople, Dec. 9.—An interview was obtained with the grand vizier, Kiamil Pasha. With regard to the peace negotiations, the grand vizier said Turkey could not permit Albania to be cut in two to enable Servia to reach the sea, and could not give up Adrianople. He refused, however, to indicate what concessions Turkey was prepared to make.

Asked if the government favored Turkey's entry into the Balkan federation, Kiamil Pasha said that all depended on the value of the federation and what advantage Turkey was likely to find in such a union.

With respect to the port's attitude on foreign affairs, Kiamil said the porto desired and was required to stand well with all the powers, but that it must not be forgotten that Turkey is a maritime country and it is therefore its more especial interest to have good relations with certain maritime powers.

The government's policy, he added, would be an extremely liberal one, and would introduce numerous reforms as soon as the end of the war permitted.

"I am happy to be able to affirm," concluded the grand vizier, "that no crisis threatens the internal policy of Turkey and that the government is sufficiently strong to settle in perfect calm the numerous difficult questions now outstanding."

Bashi bazouks have massacred the inhabitants of 16 Christian villages. The French cruiser Victor Hugo has been sent to the nearest point to the scene of the butchery.

Ambassador Can Not Serve.

Constantinople, Dec. 9.—Tewfik Pasha, the Turkish ambassador at London, has declined to act as a delegate in the coming peace negotiations, owing to ill health. The porto consequently is seeking a third delegate, who probably will be Naby Bey, the newly-appointed ambassador at Rome.

OPEN TO EVERY ONE

Probe of Lancaster School To Be Resumed This Week.

Columbus, O., Dec. 9.—When the Boys' Industrial school probe is resumed Thursday it will be with doors open to the public, according to Allen W. Thurman, president of the state board of administration. "In the end, these charges come back on Major F. C. Gerlach, superintendent of the institution," said Mr. Thurman, "and he has been furnished with a copy of the testimony in the cruelty probe proceedings and he can introduce any testimony he wants in rebuttal and can examine and cross-examine witnesses any way he likes. We are willing that everyone should know what goes on and the people can make up their own minds about the merit of the charges that we are investigating."

Horses and Barn Burned.

Columbus, O., Dec. 9.—High winds, an eight-mile run for motor-driven fire apparatus, property loss estimated at nearly $10,000, mostly covered by insurance, and the burning of five horses, 400 bushels of grain and 50 tons of hay were incidents of a fire that destroyed the large barn and an adjacent shed at the Columbus Country club, east of the city.

Parcels Post A Big Problem

Some Radical Changes at Local Postoffice Expected as Result of Big Problems Which Will Require Additional Carriers and Clerks—Parcels Post an Unknown Quantity and a Puzzler

The local postoffice officials are at present confronted with three mighty big problems—the holiday rush, the parcels post and the eight-hour labor law. The first of the trio of problems commences next week, the second will be inaugurated January 1st and the third—which may mean additional employees at the local office, follows on March 4th.

It is very probable that the post-office will become a veritable express office within a short time after the parcels post system is established, and extra help will undoubtedly be required to assist in handling the volume of business.

In an effort to establish some idea of the amount of business to be added by the parcels post, a list of questions was mailed to each business man in the city, and only one in nine persons have so far made reply, because they were not in a position to answer intelligently and state the approximate number of parcels they would probably mail.

Mrs. Susie Babe, chief operator at the Home Telephone Co., is able to resume her duties after being confined to her home for ten days, the result of injuries received in a fall.

Mr. Chas. Mark, of Glendale, was able to return from a four weeks' stay at Mt. Carmel hospital in Columbus, the last of the week, his brother, Mr. J. B. McCoy, going up to accompany him home. Friends all over the country will rejoice to learn that Mr. Mark has been greatly benefited by the recent treatment.

Miss Carrie Anschutz returned Saturday night from Dayton where she was called by the accident of William Anschutz. Later examinations showed that Mr. Anschutz's ankle was broken in two places and the other badly sprained. It was thought best to remove him today to the Miami Valley hospital where he will have expert care.

Many friends will be gratified to learn that Mrs. Ernest Ellis and daughter, Virginia, are slowly improving after their long siege of scarlet fever at their home in Los Angeles, Cal. Mrs. Chas. Persinger received a wire from her son-in-law, Mr. Ellis Saturday, bearing the good news. The little girl was free from delirium for the first time in three weeks.

Scarlet Fever In the County

In various sections of the county scarlet fever in mild forms has been causing considerable unrest, and in southern Fayette where the last outbreak occurred the various patients suffering from the disease are on the road to recovery and school has been resumed once more.

In other parts of the county a few mild cases of the disease have appeared during the past few weeks, but so far as known no deaths have resulted, and in each instance precaution was taken to prevent a further spread of the disease.

TELEPHONES—Home No. 137. Bell, Main No. 170.

PROSPERITY IS PERMANENT.

The newspapers, magazines and orators, whether on street corners or platforms, who cry out a warning that an era of hard times is approaching and that the present prosperity cannot be expected to continue much longer are neither very strong on business intelligence nor overburdened with patriotism.

One wholesome feature of the present prosperous era—one of the real causes for the present good times in fact—is the abundant crops harvested all over the nation during the past season and the past half dozen or more seasons last past in fact. Never in the history of the land have the agricultural communities enjoyed such prosperity, never has land been more valuable, and never have the products of the farm sold so well and been harvested in such abundance.

After all is said and done every man who studies, at all, the problems of individual and national success and prosperity must realize that by far the major portion of the real wealth of the land must come from the farm. The tillers of the soil furnish the real basis for substantial prosperity.

Stock market gambling and money manipulation may make times good or bad, providing the business conditions of the country depend upon the caprice or the avarice of the men who control the fictitious values of the stock market.

The time was when such a sorry condition of affairs did exist when the people who control the real wealth of the country—those who own and till the land and harvest the crops—were a bit careless of what was going on, but that day has passed by forever.

In those days the "calamity howler" was a valuable aid to the politicians and the controllers of hot-house prosperity.

Changed conditions make of him now a ridiculous relic of the unpleasant past only. This nation's prosperity no longer depends on the stock market and the newspaper or magazine which keeps up the hard times are coming to prove itself ignorant of the great change which has occurred in the land.

Prosperity is here in abundance and it is here to stay because it is founded upon real values and not upon fictitious values.

It is, therefore, a permanent prosperity—one which is not built up and maintained on a false foundation and hence one which cannot be destroyed by false reports of approaching disaster.

A STRONG FACTOR.

Many things have contributed to the success of the movement to break up the corrupt conditions in politics and affairs of government which had grown so powerful and so arrogant as to not only control the rights and liberties of the people and their property values, but to threaten and defy the very government itself. The lecture platform, the free press and the political campaigns have one and all played their important parts in the great movement.

But there is still another powerful agency for good in exposing corruption in public affairs—the Burns detective agency.

Those skilled men—those experts in ferreting out crime in high places and running to earth the big criminal without fear of consequences, aided by that wonderful little mechanical appliance of their own design and making—the dictograph—have been a host for good which has caused many corrupt legislators and political bosses either to keep in the straight and narrow path or don the stripes and serve a prison sentence for their misdeeds.

The exposures made by the Burns agency have done much to spur an indignant and an outraged public on to affirmative action. So far the Burns agency has stood the test of the onslaught made by guilty but powerful criminals, and stands clean before the people as one of the great factors for good.

The Burns detectives have furnished to the public a splendid record for efficiency and honesty. From east to west and from north to south near to home and as far away as San Francisco these detectives have whipped the public criminals, no matter what their power or their influence, from high positions to the bar of justice.

Not only have they done this but they have given to a nation of people absolute proof of the existence of which they long suspected and feared, existed.

Anyone who believes that woman's field of activity in business is limited should be convinced to the contrary by reading the following figures from a report of the London board of trade: Women bankrupts were less numerous than in 1910, the figure being 399, against 495.

The woman grocer was the least successful among the tradesmen of the sex, taking the number of failures as a criterion; the woman milliner and dressmaker next, then the woman draper and haberdasher, and fourth, the woman lodging house keeper.

Married women are slightly in the majority of the failures (161) and single women greatly in the minority (81). There were 157 widows. The woman bankrupt entered into many fields.

Among others one notes in the list eleven bakers, four butchers, seven farmers, five fishmongers, four nurses, two photographers, eight restaurant keepers, five schoolmistresses, six tobacconists, two gardeners, nine toy dealers, six stationers and three undertakers.

WALK IN, MISTEH WINTEH!

Walk in, Misteh Winth, wid you' freeze-y frosty smile,
En yo' blow en bluff en blusteh dat yo' think is all de style.
Hammele on de winders en go shakin' at de do'
En sen' de win' a-whistlin' wid yo' might acrost de flo'.
Slam de gates, en hollel des as bold as yo' kin be—

I ain't a-gwine ter dodge you', fo' yo' allus did fin me!

Walk in, Misteh Winth, wid yo' nose a-blazin' red,

En show me how de kivehs is too scant-like fo' de bed;
Chuckle at de coal-pile en go pro-jickin' aroun'

Noticin' de absunce o' de things yo' isn't foun';

Come along en ack up dess as brash as yo' kin be—

I ain't steppin' sideways, fo' yo' allus did catch me!

Walk in, Misteh Winth—hyuh's a broken winder pane,

Blow yo' col' breff throo it whilst yo' ax me to explain,

Ax me whah my hat is, whah my shoes is, an' mah ves—

Gas Pressure Very Low Today

With the advent of the worst cold snap so far this season, the gas pressure became very low Monday morning, causing a great deal of inconvenience and no little actual suffering. A great many complaints were made by the shivering citizens who found a very weak flame answered the touch of a match to the stove along about the time dawn was breaking.

The pressure continued low for many hours, proving inadequate to the increased demands caused by the low temperature.

Corn Show Will Be Biggest Ever

The management of the Jeffersonville corn show, to be held at Jefferson Hall the week of December 23rd, closing Friday night, December 27th, have been very busy making arrangements for the greatest corn show ever held in Jeffersonville, and from inquiries received it is evident that the number of entries will be greater than at first anticipated. Over $300 in prizes will be awarded the successful exhibitors, and the corn exhibited will remain the property of the exhibitor. The classes are open to all, and all exhibits must be in the hands of the committee by 6 p.m., December 23rd.

The Fayette County Extension

School will be held in Jeffersonville on the same dates as the corn show, and it will be a big week for Fayette's second largest town.

STRAWBERRIES
IN DECEMBER.

Bloomfield, N. J., Dec. 9.—Strawberries in December, grown in the open, and nice, juicy and sweet, were picked from the vines on the farm of Henry Herman in Belleville. Herman distributed a pint of the fruit. He also produced several blossoms that he picked from the vines. In an effort to protect the vines from the cold the farmer has placed the plants under glass and expects to have strawberry shortcake for Christmas.

WAR AVIATOR SHOT

Photographs Turkish Positions and Dies on Return to Camp.

Vienna, Dec. 9.—The fate of Dr. Jules Constantin, a French aviator in the Bulgarian service, who was decorated by King Ferdinand for bravery, is described in a dispatch just received here.

Dr. Constantin started from Sumra village on his last flight over the Tchatalja lines, with the object of dropping bombs on the Turkish troops. His biplane disappeared rapidly and some hours later was seen to descend near the Bulgarian camp. The aviator was found lying on the ground, dead, with a wound in his chest. The wings of the biplane had also been pierced by bullets.

The instruments showed that he had reached a height of nearly 4,000 feet. He had photographed the Turkish lines and evidently had been shot, but had strength to guide the machine back before he expired.

Woman Chloroformed by Burglars. Cleveland, O., Dec. 9.—The interior of the home of Mrs. Sarah E. Storer was ransacked by two masked burglars, who had seized and chloroformed Mrs. Storer. Carpets were torn up and the wainscotting pulled loose in search of a hoard which they supposed was hidden in the house.

Epileptic's Fatal Fall. Toledo, O., Dec. 9.—Stricken with epilepsy while standing in the rear door of her home, Mrs. Mary Stanton, 70, fell down three steps and received injuries which resulted in her death.

DIED OF BROKEN HEART

Frisco Merchant Kills Bosom Friend, Mistaking Him for Burglar.

San Francisco, Dec. 9.—Walter S. Cox, a retired business man of 55, died of a broken heart following the accidental killing of his friend, James J. Hyland, Nov. 14. On that date Cox was awakened by some one breaking a window of his house and, seizing a revolver, went to investigate. Encountering a man he supposed was a burglar, he fired, killing Hyland. Cox when he looked at the body found that he had killed his lifelong friend. Hyland, who lived next door, had mistaken the house for his own. Cox never recovered from the shock, although no blame was attached to him.

sist in restoring order. The secretary requested that the pope issue a decree to that end.

The Liberals construed the act of Secretary Hernandez as being not in line with the laws respecting the separation of the church and the state and are considering the expediency of interpellating the government in the chamber of deputies.

The new secretary of the interior has also admitted that the army is not nearly large enough to give protection to haciendas and small towns. In reply to requests from these quarters, he has sent the following note: "The government is making almost unheard-of efforts to give protection, but to accede to all demands would require an army of 500,000."

a false address as his New York abode when he was married by Alderman Smith. He stated at the time that he was "James Arthur Delay, age 46, solicitor," and that the woman he was marrying was "Marie Leslie Young, age 32, widow," another lie, as the woman had been divorced by her husband.

About this time one letter from Delay as Daley reached London, but after that the name Daley was never used.

As counsel in the divorce case Delay went to a strange firm of solicitors and introduced himself as a friend of a dead partner of the firm. He also retained solicitors for Mrs. Young. When and where Delay first met Mrs. Young and when, where and how often they used to meet remains a secret.

The Passion Play
And Stage Compared

With a strong presentation of The Passion Play, its Meaning for Our Times', Rev. Frederick E. Ross closed the series of Sunday night lectures which have been drawing such large audiences to Grace church

The lecture of last night while including the purpose of the great drama which had been so vividly sketched, also included a discussion of the present day drama which was of marked interest.

In part Rev. Ross said: "The Passion Play is altogether peculiar by reason of its theme, history and environments. We must not judge it as any other play. It is in a class of itself and must be judged by itself."

But when all is said it still remains a play, and part of the legacy of Puritanism is an antagonism to the stage. Therefore, to those who are prejudiced, just criticism is impossible.

But whatever our viewpoint, it must be admitted that the dramatic instinct is an essential part of our nature. It is more pronounced in some than in others, but it is a natural endowment as truly as faith, or trust or love. It is an instinct that seeks to express itself in the child at play, and upon which is based the art of acting.

When the stage had a worthy motive the play was good, and the theater was able in such a period to preserve comparative purity.

The striking thing in the three great early dramatists was the high moral tone, sounding almost a note of religion. These ancient masters of the drama made the chief function of their plays the imparting of moral and religious instruction and the elevating of the moral tone.

Later, the drama degenerated and, though temporarily restored in the Miracle plays, became so corrupt that the church put on its bans and said that day the stage has not enjoyed church sanction."

The minister before taking up the subject of the modern drama, said he wished to be entirely fair and asked for correction from any of his hearers if his statements were thought to be misrepresentations.

"The theater of today is generally representative of the perversion of the dramatic instinct and lives and thrives upon the misuse of this instinct. In the first place the stage of today exists to furnish amusement.
It exists to make money. The managers and the syndicates ask will it pay? rather than, Is it clean? Will it hold up right ideals?
The question of public morals is to them insignificant."

There is no doubt that people must have diversion; there is no blame to the syndicate for wishing to succeed.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, December 16, 17 and 18, with Wednesday matinee, Columbus is to have the new musical comedy, "Frivolous Geraldine," and its production at the Hartman theater Monday evening will be the first time it has been seen on any stage. It is to be produced by Jos. E. Howard, who is responsible for some of the biggest successes in the theatrical world, and he has predicted that this is to be the best of all. The cast which has been chosen to interpret this musical comedy is composed of some of the best known professional people of today, Mabel McLean, Jack Gardner, Leslie Gaze, Henrietta Packard, Leona Stevens, Kurtis Erickson, Sherman Wade, Frank Compton and Geo.
Fox.

ASK ANY MAN WHO KNOWS ME

If you don't know just what kind of a fellow or what kind of clothes I sell, ask any man who knows me. I have been in the clothes business for sixteen years and many changes have taken place.

The styles which were popular in those days have given place to Twentieth Century fashions, but the policy on which I started—the policy of honest, square dealings—has never changed. My prices at $15 to $35 are right and within reach of every one. Drop in sometime and let me show you my woolens. You know you will be welcome.

THE HENNESS TOURIST AGENCY

Is Offering Some Splendid Tours

In Europe—1913

OF WASHINGTON C. H., OHIO

of Europe for 1913, Including

The World's Seventh Sunday School Convention

To be held at Zurich, Switzerland. These Tours are Not on the Excursion plan, herding the people promiscuously, but are carefully planned and Personally Conducted by reliable persons who are constantly with the party, and do not leave them in the hands of those who have no farther interest than to fleece the innocent traveler. This Agency holds and exercises the right of selection in the membership of each party, which party is limited to a convenient number.

Each Member of the Party Selects for Themselves the Grade and Class of Ocean Passage and the agency secures the ticket for the grade selected. The medium class is recommended. This Agency offers to the traveler The Very Best that Careful Study and Experience in Travel can give, both in plan and service.

This Agency provides a Matron—a Christian Lady who is thoroughly familiar with foreign travel, and who gives her entire time and attention to the care and comfort of the ladies, Especially Young Ladies who need motherly care and protection. This Agency includes in the prices quoted, All Transportation, All Hotel Accommodations, All Guide Fees, All Side Trip Expenses, All Necessary Handling of Hand Baggage, All Tips to Hotel Attendants and Transfer Agencies, in fact every necessary expense. This agency patronizes High Class Hotels, every arrangement being made before leaving home, and a list of the same presented to each member of the party when desired. This Agency employs only the most Reliable and Competent Guides. This Agency plans its itineraries so as not to travel nights nor on The Sabbath Day. As to personal character, ability and financial responsibility, this Agency presents to you as Reference the following persons: Hon. A. J. Gronna, member of U. S. Senate, Lakota, N. Dak.; Mr. Carl R. Ellis, Pres. 1st National Bank, Sabina; Rev. J. Wesley Potter, DD., Sioux Falls, S. Dak.; Hon. John H. Webster, Cincinnati, O.; Rev. A. O. Honey, Pres. Ohio Conf. M. P. Church, Mt. Blanchard, O.; Mr. John G. Grossman, Gen. Steam Ship Agent, Columbus, O. These Tours offered by this Agency extend from Southern Italy north to a latitude equal to that of Hudson Bay in America. These Tours range in price from $187.50 to $415.00. This difference in price is not due to quality, but to quantity, as

All Are Equal in High Class Quality

A neat Booklet has been issued, descriptive of each Tour, giving full particulars as to places visited, time, dates, things of interest to be seen and visited, points and methods of receiving mail, etc., etc. If you or any of your friends are interested in Foreign Travel, or The World's Sunday School Convention, a postal card will bring you a Booklet giving full information needed. You will be pleased with the plans and prices. You will be delighted with the trip. Promptness means best places. Steamer berths are already selling rapidly. This Agency is at your service.

Ask for a personal conference with the manager, if desired.

Pensions For the Blind. Columbus, O., Dec. 9.—Pensions of not less than $1 a day nor less than $365 a year for every blind person in the state were endorsed by a state meeting of the blind at which it was proposed that such a measure be brought before the legislature at its next session. The present system by which the blind commission in each county is authorized to fix a maximum of $150 a year from the returns of a special tax was strongly condemned.

Guard Your Complexion

Cold winter winds have much the same effect on the skin that strong heat has. The cuticle becomes parched and dry and the surface of the skin breaks into thousands of tiny cracks. This causes a scaly roughness that disfigures, and the baring of the delicate nerves causes severe smarting. By the use of our such skin troubles can be avoided. Used as a protection it will prevent chapping. If the skin is already rough and sore it will stop the smarting and quickly heal.

Nyal's Face Cream

BICYCLE RACE NOW ON

Began at Midnight and Will Not End Until Next Saturday Night.

New York, Dec. 9.—The twentieth annual six-day bicycle race and the fourteenth 142-hour team race is now on at Madison Square Garden. A few minutes after midnight this morning 15 riders, representing as many teams of two men each, were sent on the wearing plugging match that will not end until five minutes after 10 next Saturday night. Despite the late hour of the start, a crowd that taxed the capacity of the big building was present. The following started in the race for their respective teams: Moran, Clarke, Grenda, Fogler, Root, Thomas, Perchicot, Sutter, Loftus, Bedell, Cameron, Drobach, Magin, Wells and Berthel.

Falls Down Stairs and Dies.

Wooster, O., Dec. 9.—Ell Frary, 74, prominent in business affairs in the village of Burbank, received injuries in falling down a stairway that caused his death.

ADVOCATED BY HERRMAN

Interleague Schedule After Each League Has Played Its Games.

New York, Dec. 9.—August Herrmann, the acknowledged leader in National league baseball politics, arrived here from Cincinnati and registered at the Waldorf-Astoria, where the magnates will hold the regular fall powwow this week. Herrmann expects to close the much talked of Tinker deal before the coming session ends, for he intends to pay more attention to what Manager John Evers of the Cubs has to say in this matter than to the opinions set forth by C. W. Murphy, the owner of the Chicago Cubs. It now looks an even bet that Tinker will be officially proclaimed the new manager of the Reds before many days have elapsed.

That Herrmann is strongly advocating an interleague championship schedule of 64 games after each major league circuit has played 112 games, ending early in August, there is ample evidence. Herrmann has reached the conclusion that in order to thoroughly illustrate its good features, there must be a joint conference of the National and American leagues. As the American league men hold their fall meeting in Chicago this week, Herrmann has decided to ask for a general discussion of the plan when both leagues convene here in February to adopt the usual playing schedules.

Yardmaster Killed.

Toledo, O., Dec. 9.—While switching trains in the Air Line junction yards, William H. Myers, 30, yardmaster for the Michigan Central railroad, was struck by a fast passenger train, receiving injuries which resulted in his death half an hour later.
